The Lodge Where I Belong

*Though my lodge may lack the splendor
Of a Temple or a Shrine, Or possess the gaudy fixtures that are classed as superfine,*

*Yet the fellowship it offers is in a price beyond compare.
And I wouldn't trade it ever for life's treasures rich or bare!*

*The handclasp firm, the word of cheer,
Oh, such meanings they impart,
The mystic ties of brotherhood that links us heart to heart!*

*You'd really have to travel far,
For the friendships quite so strong,
As those one always find right here In the Lodge where I belong.*

*When all my earthly travels end,
And at last I'm borne to rest Where mortal hands no longer toil and I cease life's endless quest*

Why there's nothing I'd like better, should I join the heavenly throng, than to meet with all the Brothers of the Lodge Where I Belong.
